Officer Reports

Chair:

Dear Area,
My apologies for my absence today. I am with my children at Baker Lake. Thank you NA, for giving me the relationship with my children today. All appears to be well throughout the area, as I continue to communicate with members in elected positions and haven't heard otherwise. We continue to plug along at a steady pace in Yakima, even more stable with a couple of key members back on their feet in their leadership positions. I love you all and will continue to serve NA as a core part of my recovery. In loving service,
Ron O.

Vice Chair:

Greetings Area!

Please bear with me as I am doing double duty today. Ron O is not here today. I am praying for the willingness to make an effort to not be bossy, as I sit in the Chair position. As always some house-keeping stuff. Please remember we've been asked not to sit on the comfy furniture that you see outside this circle. Also, the wooden structure/puzzle table is off limits. If you smoke, please do so on the sidewalk by the street. A butt-can is provided. Please use it. If your children are here with you today, please be responsible for them. We rent this space, the restrooms, the small room behind us and the kitchen. Please don't enter any other rooms. This is intended to be a pot-luck so please bring food if you can. Coffee is provided. Thank you, NA.

Please remember it is your responsibility to print off your GSR report forms and literature order forms for your group business meetings and to bring these to ASC. I only bring a few copies with me and these copies go fast.

In loving service,

Theresa

Public Relations Chair:

Greetings CWANA. PR is alive and well – we are running into what seems to plague the NA service structure, we don't have enough people to do all the work needed! There are always opportunities to be of service in PR if anyone is interested.

This month we had a lot of discussion clarifying our website, for now we're working on any functionality issues, then will move on to content changes in the future. We also spent some time clarifying how flyers are put on the website – and there isn't a clear process as of now. We're working with the Activities Subcommittee on how to streamline the process and hope to have a plan in the near future. So please be patient with us, specifically our web-servant, as we figure that out.

We also talked about our phone-line and what accountability means in terms of our volunteers – we're being gentle with the process, having the divisional coordinators contact volunteers in their division and clarifying what's expected of them.

ILS,

Bo C.

Interim Area PR Chair

Literature Chair:

Greetings Area,

I'm in sunny SanDiego, as you are reading this.

Andrew did great on his training day last month, and I leave you in his capable hands this month.

He does need an assistant, and I trust someone has stepped up to help.

Some new items are available to order this month!

I've seen many of you admire our history book, Miracles Happen, but could just not afford the $26.00 price tag. World services has made a new soft cover edition with a bonus audio CD for the low price of just $10.00. (Item # 1121) They are also offering a new and improved acrylic medallion holder. (Item# 6099) And to go in that medallion holder are 4 new tri plate medallions:

Translucent Green/Pearl/Black (item # 6100 series)

Gold/Pearl/Black (item # 6700 series)

Violet/Pearl/Black (item # 6800 series)

Orange/black/Pearl (item # 6900 series)

Order this month to receive next month.

I'll see you in October!

In Loving Service,

Bobbe G
